Reading: What are you doing to help nature?

42. Read the text and answer the questions.

This year our school, "Edinburgh Castle School" is taking part in the program "Let's Save Nature." This program tries to help both animals and plants in our countryside, beaches and mountains.

Animals and plants are disappearing because we humans are not taking care of them. We are throwing our rubbish in the sea, on the streets and in the country. The animals are getting trapped in the plastic bags, or getting ill because they eat plastic wrappers. Plants are dying because we are throwing chemicals and rubbish in the forests. Forest fires are also killing thousands of animals and plants.

Our school is now helping. We are collecting rubbish from the beaches in our city and telling people not to throw anything on them. We are also collecting used batteries and other dangerous materials. And you? What are you doing to help animals and plants? Are you littering the beaches and the country or are you putting your rubbish in the correct places? Please, help animals; don't litter.

Reading and writing

55. Read the text and complete the sentences.

When Johnny was a boy, he lived in the countryside, a long way from the city. His best friend, Patrick, lived in the house next door, but no one else lived near them. They spent a lot of time playing in the forest near their houses and they liked making up stories about the animals which lived there. The two boys also loved watching action films and documentaries about the wildlife in their country.

Patrick was always very good at drawing and painting. Sometimes, Johnny got bored because Patrick wanted to paint when he wanted to play in the forest. Johnny couldn't paint very well, but he could tell great stories.

When they grew up, Johnny went to the city and became a film scriptwriter. He's written three very successful films. Patrick stayed near the forest and is now an artist. Last month, they met again and agreed to make an animated film together.

- 1 Patrick's house was next door to Johnny's.

62. Read the text and complete the sentences.

Jack's trainers were quite old and there was an amazing new pair in a shop in town. They were black and silver and Jack wanted these trainers more than anything.

He asked his mum and dad for some money. Dad said 'But Jack. We gave you your pocket money on Saturday. You wasted it all on sweets and comics.' It was true. Jack found his money box, sat down at the kitchen table and opened the box. One £2 coin fell out onto the table. That certainly wasn't enough to buy the wonderful trainers.

Mum came into the kitchen. 'You can do some jobs for me if you like. That way you can earn some money.' 'OK,' said Jack, 'but what shall I do?' 'You can wash my car,' said Mum.

Jack washed his mum's car and she was very pleased. After that, some of Mum's friends asked Jack to clean their cars. After a few weeks, Jack had enough money to buy the trainers. When he got to the shop, he had a lovely surprise! There was a sale, so the trainers were cheaper. Jack bought the trainers and then he went to the newsagents' and bought a comic with the money he had left!

- 1 Jack wanted to buy some black and silver trainers.
- 2 He spent all _____ sweets and comics.
- 3 There was only _____ in Jack's money box.
- 4 Mum was pleased when Jack _____.
- 5 It took Jack _____ to earn enough money to buy the trainers.
- 6 When he went to the shop, the trainers _____ so he also bought a comic.

Last summer, Robert went on holiday with his family and they stayed in a house called Rugged Head. Robert loved the house, because it was only a few metres from a beach. His parents let him and his little sister go out and come back when they wanted. 'There are no thieves or murderers here!' said Robert's dad. In the day, they read, played games and swam in the warm sea. But at night, Robert became nervous. At home there was always noise, but here, after it got dark there was ... nothing!

One night, Robert couldn't sleep. He heard a strange noise that was coming from the beach. It sounded like crying. 'I'm in a mystery story!' thought Robert. He got up and put on his sweater. He wanted to solve the mystery of the noise. He walked along the dark beach. He looked through his binoculars and saw a shape on a rock by the sea. When he was near, he saw a little seal. It was crying for its mother. Then, suddenly its mother's head appeared in the water near the rock, and the little seal dived into the water and swam to her.

- 1 Robert's family stayed in a house called Rugged Head.
- 2 The house was only _____ from the beach.
- 3 In the day, Robert read, _____ or he went swimming.
- 4 After it became dark, Robert felt _____.
- 5 Robert heard a noise that _____ crying.
- 6 The little seal dived _____ and swam to its mother.

Whisper of the Heart is an animated film. The director was Yoshifumi Kondo, and Hayao Miyazaki created the storyboard and screenplay. The story is from the Japanese Manga by Aoi Hiiragi and tells the story of 14-year-old Shizuku Tsukishima. Shizuku is a girl who enjoys reading fantasy books, writing songs and going to the library where her father works.

Shizuku lives in an apartment in a city in Japan, but in the movie we see some beautiful Japanese countryside, too. She loves reading library books and she starts to notice that the same person has borrowed every library book that she chooses. She finds out the name of this person – Seiji Amasawa. As Shizuku learns who this person is, she also begins to learn about herself. My favourite scene is the one in the antique shop where she sings and talks with Seiji.

Yoko Honna and Issei Takahashi play the characters of Shizuku and Seiji. Of course, we don't see them, we just hear their voices.

Whisper of the Heart is a fascinating film. It's two hours long but that goes very quickly. The story of Shizuku is very true to life. The animations are beautiful and the song that we hear in the film, 'Take Me Home, Country Roads' is perfect for the story. This is one of my favourite animated films.

The Tower of London is a very popular monument in London. Millions of tourists from all over the world visit this famous castle every year.

William the Conqueror, who became king of England in 1066, started the Tower in 1078 and finished it in 1098. Today it is a museum. But in the past, kings and queens of England lived in it. And it was also a prison. King Henry VIII had six wives and two of them were prisoners in the Tower!

The Tower is next to the river Thames. You can visit it by boat or you can go by bus. There is a café there so you can drink a coffee or eat an ice cream after your visit.

When you visit the Tower, you can see a big collection of the crowns and jewels of the kings and queens of England. This collection is called the Crown Jewels. One of the jewels is an enormous diamond. It's called the Star of Africa.

You can also see Beefeaters. They are soldiers with strange red and black hats. They look after the Crown Jewels and the famous ravens (big black birds) in the Tower gardens.
